OTHER COUNTRIES

BRAZIL

16.02.2020 Internal Revenue Service (IRS) officers, together with the Federal Police (PF), seized 114 kg of cocaine at the port of Itajai, South Carolina. Drugs were found inside a container in black bags among pallets with wooden slabs. The container was selected for inspection following a risk profile analysis. The cocaine shipment was placed in a legal cargo inside the port terminal using a "Rip-on/Rip-off" technique. The timber cargo was destined for the port of Antwerp, Belgium. Seized cocaine has been handed over to the Federal Police, which is conducting an investigation. <http://otempodefato.com.br/geral/receita-federal-apreende-114-quilos-de-coca%C3%ADna-no-porto-de-itaja%C3%ADsc-1.2202643>

20.02.2020 Military Police (PMSC) of Itapoa, Santa Catarina, received an anonymous complaint stating that there was a container with hidden drugs in a port terminal at Itapoa port. After inspecting several containers with forwarded specifications, 12 bags of cocaine totalling 13.94 kg were found in one of them. Cocaine was inside a refrigerated container's cooling system. Drugs were seized and handed over to the Civil Police Division for investigation. <http://www.segurancaportuariaemfoco.com.br/2020/02/pm-sc-apreende-cocaina-em-terminal.html>

GERMANY

21.02.2020 German police and customs prevented 700 kg of cocaine from entering Germany as a result of a joint operation with Belgian colleagues in Antwerp. In a German investigation into a cargo company from Lower Saxony, information on the arrival of five suspicious containers carrying food salt from Brazil in the port of Antwerp was received and transmitted to Belgian law enforcement authorities. In early February, Belgian investigators inspected the containers and found more than 700 kg of cocaine in the cargo of declared salt. The German carrier was not only responsible for the supply chain, but also had a relationship with the buyer of salt. Ultimately, the salt containers were transported by truck to Lower Saxony, where investigators were able to gather evidence of drug smuggling. <https://www.brusselstimes.com/belgium/96255/700-kg-of-cocaine-disguised-as-table-salt-found-in-antwerp/>

NORTH MACEDONIA

20.02.2020 In an international operation against criminal networks involved in drug smuggling involving several countries, police in Northern Macedonia seized 1 kg of cocaine. The operation was supported by the United States Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) and police in North Macedonia, Albania, Montenegro and Italy. The seized cocaine was smuggled from neighbouring Albania in a truck driven by a Montenegrin national. The police had been following the truck since its entry and had searched a warehouse of a local fruit company in the village of Krushopek, near Skopje, which was its final destination. Following the discovery of cocaine hidden in banana bags, the police detained the owner of fruit company, two employees and truck driver. In the past, the fruit company was actively importing fruit from Colombia and Ecuador into Latin America. The drugs found were probably part of a much larger shipment of drugs. 1.3 tons of cocaine arrived by ship in Albania, presumably destined for Slovenia, and was then distributed from there to other European countries. <https://balkaninsight.com/2020/02/20/north-macedonia-joins-partners-in-busting-cocaine-smuggling-gang/>

UKRAINE

14.02.2020 A criminal group of residents of the city of Kremenchug was engaged in manufacture and sale of psychotropic substances and drugs in the Poltava region. Among those involved in the drug business are former police officers. The leader of the organized criminal group (OCG) and his accomplices were detained during a joint special operation of internal security officers of the National Police of Ukraine, investigators and special forces of Poltava and Dnipropetrovsk police. The persistent criminal group was organized by a 52-year-old resident of the city of Kremenchug, who attracted almost two dozen people, men and women aged 27-52 years, to illegal activities and established the process of drug production and distribution in the region. For this purpose, perpetrators set up a room in a private house located in a village of the Kremenchug district. The area was equipped with 24-hour video surveillance cameras. Numerous searches were conducted in the place of residence of OCG members and in the location of the drug lab. More than 1 kg of amphetamine, 0.5 kg of marijuana, 1 ton of precursors in canisters and glass containers, six bags of powder substance with a total weight of 300 kg, coils with unknown powder substance, equipment and dishes for drug production were seized. In addition, seven pistols without permits, ammunition for them, mobile phones, office equipment, more than 700 thousand hryvnia, 1.5 thousand dollars in cash and 5 luxury cars were seized. Weapons and drugs were found inside cars. Value of seized drugs and precursors may amount to 2.5 million hryvnia. At present, the main defendants, including the leader and a 40-year-old former police officer, are detained.
