BULGARIA

30.03.2020 Two members of an organized criminal group smuggling heroin from the Middle East to Western Europe were detained by the Police (DGBOP) in a special operation conducted in Burgas, Stara Zagora, Dimitrovgrad and Haskovo by the State Security Service under the supervision of the Special Prosecution Office. The heroin consignment arrived at the port of Burgas on 26 March 2020 and was overloaded with several trucks, making monitoring by law enforcement agencies difficult. Subsequently, 72 kg of heroin were found in a Bulgarian-registered truck at the Haskovo parking lot. The heroin was hidden in caches inside air cylinders attached to the bottom of a semi-trailer. Drug seizures are worth over BGN 10 million. Participants in a criminal group operating on the European market, including its leader, were detained. During searches of addresses located in various settlements where the accused lived and used, evidence of their criminal activity was collected. Co-ordination with partner services in several countries has been established for a full and comprehensive investigation of a group’s activities.
