ITALY

01.07.2020 Organized Crime Investigation Unit (GICO) has seized 14 tons of amphetamines (about 84 million Captagon tablets) in the port of Salerno as part of an investigation into an international criminal organization involved in drug smuggling. Following a period of lockdown due to epidemiological emergency caused by the Coronavirus pandemic, law enforcement efforts in this sector have been strengthened. On the basis of information obtained during the investigation, the Guardia di Finanza found 3 containers arriving at the port of Salerno with a cargo of paper cylinders for industrial use and equipment. Inspection, with the help of specialized technicians and the participation of the Anti-Fraud Unit of the Salerno Customs Agency, revealed that each paper cylinder contained about 350 kg of Captagon tablets. The paper cylinders, approximately 2 metres high and 1.4 metres in diameter, presumably made in Germany, were made of multi-layered materials capable of hiding contents stored in the inner layers from "scanner". Two weeks ago, in the port of Salerno, specialists from the Organized Crime Investigation Unit (GICO) of the Naples Economic and Financial Police intercepted a container with a cargo of counterfeit clothing concealing 2.8 tons of hashish and 190 kg of amphetamines (over 1 million Captagon tablets). The drug shipments came from Syria and were destined for sale on the European market.
